

Isaac E. Randolph, Jr., Executive Director

Isaac E. (Ike) Randolph Jr., is a 22-year veteran firefighter with the Indianapolis Fire Department, certified in the areas of arson/fire investigator, emergency rescue scuba diver and advanced emergency medical technician. During his tenure with the department he received several accommodations for exemplary service including Medals of Bravery and Merit, and the American Red Cross Hall of Fame. Randolph's parallel career as a community leader includes; founder and Executive Director of the St. Florian Center, policy advisor for faith-based initiatives to Mayor Stephen Goldsmith, Executive Director of the Front Porch Alliance, and Executive Director of the Ten Point Coalition. Most recently Randolph served on the Indianapolis City-County Council representing Pike Township in District one. He currently resides in Indianapolis with his wife Regina, and daughters Nia, and Sydney.

Responsibilities: Governor's liaison, Commission/Advisory Board.

Carey W. Craig, Chief Operating Officer

As a public servant and citizen, Carey W. Craig does his best to live out Gandhi's mantra to "be the change you wish to see." As a graduate of the University of Indianapolis with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and political science, Mr. Craig began his tenure with the Indiana Commission on Community Service and Volunteerism as a program officer in 2000 and later became the agency's deputy director in 2002. Most recently, he assumed the title of chief financial officer for the Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives. Aside from a brief stint with a national faith-based organization, Mr. Craig has spent seven of the last eight years of his career in state government, where he began as a Governor's Fellow in 1997. Mr. Craig is active in historic preservation and community development causes in Franklin. He resides there with his wife Christy and their son, Parker.

Responsibilities: Fiscal administration, human resource management, grantee oversight and accountability, administrative standards.

Vacant, Director of Programs

Responsibilities: Program design and management; staff development; resource development.

Debbie Anderson, Program Officer

Debbie joined the OFBCI in June 2007 after working with the Department of Child Services as a case manager in Indianapolis for over three years. As a native of Nokomis, IL she completed her Bachelor's degree in psychology at Union College in Barbourville, KY. After completing her M.S. in counseling psychology at the University of Kentucky, she served two years in the Peace Corps as a Primary Education Teacher Trainer in Namibia. She is active with Central IN Returned Peace Corps Association. Debbie lives on the near eastside of downtown Indianapolis in historic Woodruff Place.

Responsibilities: AmeriCorps Program Development and Management.

John Rentsch, Training & Inclusion Manager

John Rentsch graduated Magna Cum Laude from Wabash College with a BA in Religious Studies in 2005. Upon graduating, he entered the AmeriCorps*VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) Program, taking the position of Faith-Based Program Assistant with OFBCI. After successful completion of one year of national service, John joined the staff as Training Manager on July 31, 2006. John lives in Indianapolis with his wife, Melanie.

Responsibilities: Training and technical assistance.

Suzette Foster, Marketing and Outreach Manager

Suzette joined the OFBCI in December of 2007. Prior to her current position, she worked as a consultant to the Madison County Community Alliance in to Promote Education and to the 4Community Project of United Way of Madison County. She also served as a Community Facilitator and Project Lead at the Polis Center for the SAVI Project, a web-based community information system that allows user to interactively map social demographic information, and is currently a trainer for the application. Before joining Polis, Suzette was employed with the City of Indianapolis, in a variety of capacities, her final position being the Center Township Administrator serving residents in the County's largest township. While there she was instrumental in supporting several resident driven economic development projects. A graduate of Indiana University, she has a Bachelors of Science in Pubic and Environmental Affairs, and a Masters of Science in Instructional Systems Technology. As a community activist, Suzette has held various volunteer positions, including; President of the Board of the Edna Martin Christian Center, Secretary of the Board of the Intergenerational Learning Center, Marion County Purdue Extension, Member of the Community System wide Response Team, President for the Women's Department of the State of Indiana of the Progressive National Baptist Convention, and Supervisory Chair of the Mt. Zion (Indianapolis) Federal Credit Union. She resides in the Mapleton Fall Creek Neighborhood in Center Township on the near north side.

Responsibilities: Outreach, capacity building, assessments.

Jim Rosentreter, Account and Compliance Officer

Jim joined the OFBCI in August 2007, after twenty plus years of supporting Accounting software for the banking and trucking industries. He has also worked as Staff Accountant and Internal Auditor for Indiana Vocational Technical College and has a BS degree in Accounting from Indiana State University. Jim and his wife Connie are the parents of two children and have two awesome grandsons.

Responsibilities: Auditing and Review.

Edith McGuire, Account Clerk

Edith has been a part-time student at the University of Indianapolis since August, 1998. She received her Associate of Science Degree in May, 2005, and is focused on receiving her Bachelor of Science Degree in May, 2007. She is has a drive for education and is the first in her family to go further than high school. She enjoys baking, doing volunteer work, is a care-giver and loves to help others. Edith resides on the south side of Indianapolis with her fiancé, Nathan, and their four year old daughter, Neviah.

Responsibilities: Fiscal and Compliance Support.

Charlotte Shoulders, Access to Recovery Provider Services Manager

Charlotte joined OFBCI in December 2007 as part of the collaborative team implementing the Access to Recovery (ATR) program for Indiana. ATR is a SAMHSA funded initiative designed to eliminate barriers and increase service availability for persons working towards or who are in recovery from substance abuse and addiction. Charlotte was raised in Indianapolis and has BA in Sociology from Villanova University. After completing her Masters in Social Work at Indiana University, Charlotte spent eight years working at Reach For Youth, a central Indiana child and family serving not-for-profit. During that time, Charlotte worked as a therapist, program manager, and ultimately as Associate Executive Director for that organization. Charlotte is married to Michael and they live on the east side of Indianapolis with their two dogs, Jackson Blue and Hobie. Charlotte is an avid potter and can be found often in the ceramics studio at the Indianapolis Art Center. Whenever possible, travel is a favorite hobby.

Responsibilities: Statewide ATR Service Provider recruitment, certification, training and quality assurance.

DeAnna Hoskins, Access to Recovery Provider Services Associate

DeAnna Hoskins joins the staff of OFBCI as the Provider Services Associate for the Indiana Access to Recovery program. A native of Cincinnati Ohio, DeAnna has extensive experience in the social work arena serving as an Admissions Clerk for the Center of Chemical Addiction Treatment, Executive Assistant and Program Coordinator of the House of Hope, Case Manager and Family Support worker at Cross Roads Center, and Case Manager for the Community Action Agency. While pursuing her degree in Social Work, she served an internship as the Executive Director of the Luella House. Her position as a Correctional Casework Manager for the Pendleton Correctional Facility brought her to Indianapolis IN. DeAnna is currently pursuing her Masters of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Social Work from The College of Mt. St. Joseph, and her Associates Degree in Liberal Arts from Chatfield College, all in Cincinnati, Ohio. She is also certified as a Chemical Dependency Counselor Assistant and a Community Health Worker. DeAnna is the mother of three children Dontonio, DonAngelo & BreAnna, and Sampson; her sheltie. She is also the owner of "Phenomenal Shoes, LLC", an online shoe boutique for women who require a little more attention.

Erika Phillips, Receptionist

Erika graduated from Arsenal Tech High School and attended PCI College. She is currently making arrangements to continue her education at Ivy Tech. Erika resides on the west side of Indianapolis with her son.

Janet Simpson, Administrative Assistant

In February 2006, Janet joined the OFBCI family as the Administrative Assistant. She and her family relocated from Florida in December 2005 and are happy to call Greenwood their home. Janet worked as the Administrative Assistant for the Broward Sheriff's Office Chaplain in Fort Lauderdale for 7 years. Prior to the merger of the Broward Sheriff's Office with the Pompano Beach Police Department in 1999, she served as their Court Liaison Officer. She brings with her over 22 years of experience in working with faith and community based organizations and government.

Responsibilities: Administrative duties, scheduling.